DIRECTORS MESSAGE

When we were first granted performing rights to Hair-spray, back in March 2009, a tingle of excitement ran through the team. Following the cast trip to the West End to see the show this quickly changed to nervous fear!

Although to the outsider Hairspray appears to be a happy, fun loving show it soon became apparent that behind all the hilarity were some seriously difficult vocals, demanding dance routines and challenging characterisations. In addition, a West End style set needed to be constructed from scratch, 1950's & 60's costumes had to be sourced and beehive hairdos had to be created!

With over 1.7 million people having now seen the show in the West End it was important to me to remain as true to the London show as possible. So in September 2009 the Spotlight cast embarked on a gruelling rehearsal schedule, challenging them in more ways than any other previous show. Being true professionals, they all stepped up to the mark and I know you will be astounded with the energy and commitment they put in to this performance.

It would be remiss of me not to mention the rest of the Production team, too many to be named individually, who have supported me in delivering my vision and without their help this production would not have been possible.

So, sit back, relax and be transported to 1960's Baltimore, where our cast are ready to give you an unforgettable evenings entertainment.

Spotlight Costume & Set Hire

We now have over 14,000 theatrical, period, pantomime & fancy dress costumes available for hire, together with evening/prom dresses, all at very reasonable rates. These can be viewed at our barn in Abbots Ripton by appointment. We will also post them anywhere within the UK. Many are from the West End and BBC and have featured in our past shows including Grease (1950's), A Whitechapel Tale (Victorian), Bugsy Malone (1920's), Disco Inferno (1970's), 42nd Street (1930's), Back to the 80's (1980's) and Hairspray (1950's) and include period hats, bags, shoes/boots and jewellery. We have many other costumes that would work for plays and shows set in all historical periods. So whether it's for a theatrical production, a special party/prom, or for Fancy Dress, please contact us for more information or visit our website.

Additionally we are always happy to hire full sets or pieces of scenery for your theatrical productions.

SYNOPSIS

Hairspray opens in June 1962, as plus sized teenager Tracy Turnblad wakes up ready for another day "Good Morning Baltimore". After school, she and best friend, Penny Pingleton, watch The Corny Collins Show, starring "The Nicest Kids in Town". While Tracy and Penny sigh over handsome Link Larkin, Tracy's mother, Edna, slaves away at her ironing board. Penny's mother, Prudy Pingleton, expresses her disapproval of teenagers dancing to "coloured music". Edna points out that it "ain't coloured, the TV's black and white!"

In the studio, show producer, Velma Von Tussle, instructs her teen-queen daughter and Link's girlfriend, Amber, to hog the camera, while berating Corny, the host, about including songs with "that Detroit sound". She reminds him that they have to steer the kids "in the white direction". On air, Corny announces auditions for an opening on the show, as well as the national broadcast of the forthcoming "Miss Teenage Hairspray 1962" contest.

Tracy wants to audition for the show. Edna is sceptical, fearing Tracy's size will lead to rejection, but her father, Wilbur (owner of the Har-de-Har Hut Joke Shop), tells Tracy to follow her dream. While Edna tells Tracy to forget about going to the audition, Velma and Prudy argue with their daughters, Amber and Penny. The girls stubbornly resist their mothers, declaring "Mama, I'm a Big Girl Now".

Making their own decision, Tracy and Penny race into the WZZT studios just as the auditions are ending. Tracy sees Link and swoons "I Can Hear the Bells." Velma rejects Tracy, sneering at her weight and lamenting that times certainly have changed since she was crowned "Miss Baltimore Crabs".

At school, Tracy's hairdo lands her in detention, where she befriends Seaweed J. Stubbs, the son of Motormouth Maybelle (the host of once-a-month "Negro Day" on The Corny Collins Show.) At a school dance, Tracy catches Corny's eye while doing steps she learned from Seaweed.

The next day, an astonished Edna and Wilbur see Tracy on TV, the newest member of the Corny Collins Council. Link sings the latest hit, "It Takes Two", dedicating it to Tracy, now an overnight sensation. After her mother forgives her, Tracy takes Edna out on the town for a fashion makeover ("Welcome to the '60s").

During a rough scatter dodgeball game, Amber knocks out her rival, Tracy. To cheer her up, Seaweed invites Tracy, Link and Penny (who has an immediate crush on him) to his mother's record shop ("Run and Tell That"). Motormouth Maybelle welcomes them warmly; Tracy wonders why they can't all dance together on the show and plans to lead a protest during "Mother-Daughter Day." Link rejects the idea, fearing it will hurt his chance to be on national TV. He leaves a heartbroken Tracy to go back to Amber.

Edna is dubious about joining the protest. She is self-conscious about her weight, but Motormouth persuades her to accept herself — after all, they're both "Big, Blonde & Beautiful". The demonstration turns into a riot; the police arrive and drag Tracy and all the women off to jail. Act Two opens in the women's house of detention, "The Big Dollhouse". Everyone is released on bail, except Tracy, who is moved to solitary confinement. Wilbur comforts a downcast Edna ("Timeless to Me"). Meanwhile, Link realises his love for Tracy and breaks her out of jail (using a blowtorch improvised with a lighter and a can of hairspray), and Seaweed rescues Penny from her mother's clutches ("Without Love").

The four flee to Motormouth's record shop. She reminds them that the fight against injustice is neverending ("I Know Where I've Been"). The next day, Corny's prime-time show is in full swing and ready to announce the winner of "Miss Teenage Hairspray 1962" ("Hairspray"). Amber and Tracy are finalists for the title of "Miss Teenage Hairspray 1962". Amber performs a dance she dedicates to the absent Tracy ("Cooties"). Just as it looks like Amber has won the crown, Tracy bursts in from the audience to claim victory and perform a dance that's dedicated to everyone. They all dance together; black and white, fat and thin, young and old, as Tracy leads the company in declaring "You Can't Stop the Beat."

Spotlight is a non-profit organisation, committed to working with young people to produce outstanding musical theatre in the Huntingdon area.

Our key aims are to:

- ❖ Encourage and nurture singing, dancing and acting talent, amongst 13 -25 year olds
- ❖ Perform the much-loved "crowd pullers" and showcase brand new musicals.
- ❖ Show our audiences that a "West End theatre experience", can be had locally here in Huntingdon!

Graham & Sarah Wilkinson —Director & Choreographer

Sarah and I have both been involved in theatre for the past 25 years and whilst I predominantly 'trod the boards' Sarah, as a qualified dance teacher, specialised in ballroom, modern and theatrical dance, teaching in a number of local schools.

In the 16 years we have been married, we have combined our talents, working with a number of theatrical groups, directing and choreographing many shows. In September 2004 we decided to form our own Performing Arts Group, Spotlight Productions. Since conception we have performed six large scale musicals to sell-out audiences, Grease (April 2005), A Whitechapel Tale (January 2006), Bugsy Malone (October 2006), Disco Inferno (April 2007), 42nd Street (February 2008) and Back to the 80's (April 2009) receiving fantastic feedback.

We continue to believe in our initial ethos that young people from any background should have the right to audition for one of our productions and hence our subs remain at only £3 per week which covers our room hire, costumes and make-up. The rest of our funding is raised through ticket sales and costume hire (we now have over 14,000 theatrical costumes available for hire at our costume storage unit in Abbots Ripton) and this allows the group to continue to operate. Like many other non-profit making groups, we have to operate on a very tight budget and our financial constraints continue to be our biggest burden.

If you believe you know a way to help we would very much like to talk to you. Alternatively if you are interested in joining the group, whether backstage, on-stage, scenery construction, painting or just making the tea we would love to speak to you further.

We will continue to bring the 'West End' experience to Huntingdon and are already planning our future productions.

Joy Farrall — Musical Director

I actually began my career as a professional musician in the 1980s although totally in the classical sphere ..oh apart from miming on a Paul McCartney video. I am principal clarinet of the Britten Sinfonia and a Professor at the Guildhall School of Music in London.

Elena Carpenter — Stage Manager & Directors Assistant

Hairspray is a fantastic show and the cast and crew have worked incredibly hard. I am back again as Directors Assistant, which involves keeping the master script and stage directions up to date, acting as prompt in rehearsals and generally making sure the cast remember their exits and entrances. I am Stage Manager for the fourth time round, and I'll be managing the back stage crew, the props, moving the set, and generally keeping order! Enjoy the show!

Kelly Fawkes— Choreographer

I have been involved with Spotlight Productions since 2006, here we are five shows later and how the time has flown! I thoroughly enjoy being a part of Spotlight, working alongside Sarah choreographing great dance routines and encouraging the kids to learn and understand the skills needed for Musical Theatre. I also own Kelly Marie's Dancewear, which keeps me busy day to day and am currently studying to be a dance teacher at AJ's Dance Academy. My involvement with Spotlight has presented many challenges but has given me the opportunity to work within a great team, choreographing for some truly great shows.

Paul Sweeney— Assistant Director

I have been acting and directing in the Huntingdon area for over 12 years now, through various productions ranging from Oscar Wilde to Pantomime. I have worked with BBC radio on a radio play, and trained with NODA in directing. I am so pleased to have joined this talented group, having first worked with Graham and Sarah almost 11 years ago. It's rewarding to see this dedicated cast embrace the challenges of musical theatre and create such a dazzling show for everyone.

With Thanks to.....

Like many non-profit making organisations, budgets are a constant issue for us. Putting on a show like this one is a very expensive affair. So we are always looking for sponsors and organisations who will assist us by providing goods, services or just plain hard cash!!!
